Truckin' Through Nebraska

At the City Council meeting on May 16, 2017, Mayor Prunty read a proclamation honoring Police Canine Xana for her service to the citizens of Kimball and authorizing her retirement from service.

Xana started with the City of Kimball in March 2015. She is a Belgian Malinois originally imported from Holland where she was selected and trained in KNPV (The Royal Dutch Police Dog Association). She was then purchased for Department of Defense contracts in Afghanistan and is a war dog veteran of the conflict in Afghanistan. Xana has received two awards for her service to our military's security interest in that region.

Xana and her handler, Chief Andy Bremer, completed the Police Service Dog training together in Anniston, Alabama. She is trained to find illegal drugs, protect her handler, tracking, evidence recovery, apprehension, and building and area searches.

She has given uncompromising dedication to her handler and the City of Kimball and due to her age, it's time for her to retire. She will live out her remaining years with Chief Bremer's family.

Thank you for your service Xana!!

The Nebraska 150 Celebration's "Truckin' Through Nebraska: A Mobile Children's Museum" visited Kimball on June 1st and 2nd. The interior exhibits included areas where kids could build shelters and test them in a wind chamber of earthquake simulator, design their own 10-acre homestead, test their knowledge of Nebraska, create their own movie, explore toys from the past and craft their own postcards.

The exterior exhibits included a timed "chore" challenge obstacle course, foam block "construction junction" and a toy creation station.
